

Job description

Manager, Market Regulation Department – Guernsey

The International Stock Exchange Authority (TISEA) is seeking to recruit a Manager within the Market Regulation department, who will take responsibility for leading the Membership team.

The Manager will be focussed on building and maintaining excellent working relationships with Member firms as part of the oversight and supervision of them through regular engagement and the provision of value-adding training and guidance. This will include undertaking risk-based onsite visits to Member firms in order to assess their continuing compliance with the rules of the Exchange, and to propose risk-mitigation supervisory actions and/or appropriate enforcement activities if required.

The key competencies for this role include an analytical and investigative mindset driven by curiosity, an ability to exercise good judgement when dealing with partial, ambiguous or complex information and an excellent knowledge of industry standards and regulations.

In anticipation of further growth and future planned expansion, this is an exciting opportunity to work in capital markets for a locally-based company with truly international ambitions.
