

Job description

Head of Compliance, Compliance Department - Guernsey

The International Stock Exchange Group (TISEG) is seeking to recruit an experienced Head of Compliance to join the Compliance department. Reporting directly to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), the Head of Compliance is primarily responsible for overseeing compliance across the Group and establishing standards and implementing controls to ensure the Group remains effective and efficient in identifying, detecting and correcting non-compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

The Head of Compliance will be responsible for monitoring TISEA's compliance with its regulatory obligations, monitoring the with Group's compliance with its legal obligations, ensuring the Group has internal controls that adequately and effectively measure and manage risk and supporting other business functions in improving their controls and risk management capabilities.

Duties and responsibilities include keeping abreast of regulatory developments, overseeing and monitoring the Compliance Framework, Compliance Manual and Compliance Monitoring Programme, providing strategic direction to the management team on Compliance, preparing and presenting compliance reports to the Boards, interacting with regulators and developing policies and procedures.

The key competencies for this role include proven experience in leading a compliance team or function, a good knowledge of the industry's standards and regulations and being a certified compliance professional. The individual will need to be a proved talent developer, with excellent communication skills, a curious and analytical and a critical problem-solving ability.

If you are interested in this exciting role and would like to see a full copy of the job description please email Laura Cornelius at laura.cornelius@tisegroup.com.